Wilier
Superleggera Ramato

From €2500 (frameset) | wilier.com

Wilier's signature ramato finish is almost as iconic as Ferrari's rosso corsa, and is the only colour that would look right on this steel bike inspired by race-winning machines of the mid-20th century.

330 P4 poster by INK

From £50 | etsy.com/uk/shop/WeAreInk

Part of the 'Plain Bodies' series by London-based digital studio INK, and proof that with or without its red dress and lipstick, the Drogo-penned P4 was the prettiest racing car of its era.

Lego F8 Tributo

£17.99 | lego.com

Small but perfectly formed: Lego's tribute to the Tributo is just 16cm long but boasts lots of neat details, including a blocky interpretation of the car's F40-inspired, louvred Lexan engine cover.

Sharknose V6

by Jörg-Thomas Födisch & Rainer Rossbach

€124.90 | rallyandracing.com

A most welcome addition to the catalogue of McKlein Publishing, this book details the exploits of the F1 championship-winning 156. It also documents the racing history of the related sports prototypes, the 246 SP and the 196 SP, about which less has been written.

Vuoti d'Aria lamp
by Stefano Notargiacomo

€1800

stefanonotargiacomo.it

One man's trash is another man's treasure – specifically Stefano Notargiacomo's. The Italian designer has given new life to a corroded 348 TS valve cover, which is held in place by a transparent support to create the impression that it is floating above the base.
